Dream Time

Abra Moore

Dream Time Abra Moore In dream time I sleep a thousand years A thousand clouds Pass through my eyes Making sunlight disappear In dream time I cross to the other side Cross the fields of gravity Where angels like to fly Hey hey I know you and you Hey hey hey Closer I'm getting so much closer To the fall That's how i sleep at night Between the pillows and the floor boards Across to the other side Along the spinning wheels of yesterdays Where memories sometimes collide In dream time I will sleep a thousand years A thousand clouds Pass through my eyes Making sunlight disappear Closer I'm getting so much closer To the fall Closer To the fall Closer To the fall That's how i sleep at night A thousand clouds And a thousand clouds A thousand crows pull out my hair Casting shadows upon my wall [Edit] [Search Google] [Feedback Forum] [Tell
