

Dream Of Fear

Abstract Essence

So here comes the night
The time of loneliness and fear
My eyes has fallen into darkness
It's mystic might is near
I am a victim of my memories
Silent enemies
Hidden in my mind
They're about to pursue me and catch
To create this awful
To create this awful nightmare

I see something walking through me
And whispering these dreadful words
"I'm gonna catch you and you'll Never come back to your home"

Chorus: I am a stranger in the midnight street
Fighting against this half-day beast
Hoping to find salvation
Living my dream of fear

Counting my steps
To a safer place
Mind's getting clearer,
No doubt about it
I start to hear voice
From haze

I wish I'd never fallen asleep
Cause on 'n' on I hear this prophet
Wanting to find it's sense
That's not coming from deep
As I'm running through the land of nowhere

Counting my steps
To a safer place
Mind's getting clearer,
No doubt about it
I start to hear voice
From haze

Eternal voices, the shadows of my past
Are waking up to kill my sanity
No one remains here, I am the last
Surrounded to show my quality
I'm shaking like a rotting tree
Which has got mad from the endless pains
And wish just to be free
(Get rid of this chain)
