

Dreary

Absurd Minds

a lifeforce that had the ability to create universes
is now caught in a bodily form, feeling so weary.
cause everything's so dreary.
lieing on the ground, lethargy all around.
thrilling moments - nowhere to be found.
feeling so weary, cause everything's so dreary.

I need a drug that pushes me up. I'm pressed for time.
no longer i will wait, i need it now or it's to late.
i need a solution for my craving, a solution for my lust
of adrenalin. i wanna live, so what's the price?

long ago i had the ability to create universes
is now caught in a bodily form, feeling so weary.
i'm trapped in my body.
i want to break out.
i wanna be free
