First Winter Of Bloodred Snow

Absurd

Silence in the woods nobody seems to be here black ice covers the floods cursed the cound, show no fear

The knives of revenge are waiting to kill at darkest night the blood to spill enemies are slaughtered, never to be found their mutilated bodies buried in the winterly ground

See fear in their eyes thats the reward for your lies your fuckin hearts I pull to pieces I love your deathscreams sound I broke your bones and cracked your heads the Pagan madness heres around I eat your guts and soak your blood the first time it colours the snowy ground

First winter of bloodred snow victory for us or the grave below first winter of bloodred snow join the Pagan killer show!!!
