

Piper Song

Acappella

I have a daughter who's five years old,
She's got a lot of energy
We have some dreams for her you see
She's puttin' on Momma's shoes 'cause she wants to be a lady
And that's just what we want for her to be

[CHORUS:]

I wanna grow older, I wanna feel the rays of the morning light
I wanna grow older, I wanna see the shades of the evening light

Piper's a girl who's five years old,
She's a joy to her family
They have some dreams for her you see
She's puttin' on Momma's shoes 'cause she wants to be a lady
And that's just what we want for her to be

[CHORUS]

Why not be part of this prayer too?
You can help Piper's dream come true

I wanna grow older, I wanna feel the rays of the morning light
I wanna grow older, I wanna feel the light
I wanna grow older
