Can't Stand the Night

Accept

Fallin' tears, a broken heart Here I sit as time goes by 'cause all I had has gone forever Can't stand the night

The fun we had, I knew so well That somethin' so deep inside The last few days have been pure hell Can't stand the night

Love - you tore my world apart But still I can't escape You touched and you hold me The nights are hard to take

I know her body, her hair, her eyes I know she should belong to me But she's a one man's girl forever Lovin' deeply why not me

Love why do I take you
And why do you take me
Take my breath, or you take my heart
All you give is pain
A curse upon your name
Can't you see it isn't right
Can't stand the night

Tell me where I have gone wrong Give me a reason why Tell me how to win her back Can't stand the night

Love why do I take you
And why do you take me
Take my breath, or you take my heart
All you give is pain
A curse upon your name
Can't you see it isn't right
Can't stand the night

Fallin' tears, a broken heart Here I sit as time goes by 'cause all I had has gone forever Can't stand the night

Oceans filled with tears And mountains made of pain And my eyes are sad each time The night it comes back again

Love why do I take you
And why do you take me
Take my breath, or you take my heart
All you give is pain
A curse upon your name

Can't stand the night
