

Crucified

Accept

Life is like a slot machine
Nothing's guaranteed
You might give your soul away
To cut yourself a deal
I really hate uncertainty
Will I win or lose

Ain't nothing but a game
Going insane, roll the dice again
Crucified, deep inside
I'm feeling crucified

Life is like a lottery
Can I ever win
Will it be another one
Or me, who's cashing in

Ain't nothing but a game
Going insane, roll the dice again
Crucified, deep inside
I'm feeling crucified
