

Permanent

Acceptance

Sometime ago
I keep losing track over again
All these promises won't turn golden
Until you touch them

It's permanent
Nothing is permanent
It's permanent
We'll be watching your back
Following indcision's lasting for years
Indecision's lasting for years

Sometime ago
Memories in my head,
Are starting again
Speaking fast but moving slow
Running through the country
Maybe they will find me

It's permanent
Nothing is permanent
It's permanent
We'll be watching your back
Be watching your back
Following indcision's, lasting for years
Indecision's lasting for years
Like a river in arizona
Dried up before you were born

It's starting up again
It's starting up again
It's starting up again
(We'll be watching your back)
It's starting up again
It's starting up again
We'll be watching your back
It's permanent
Nothing is permanent
It's permanent
We'll be watching your back
It's permanent
Nothing is permanent
It's permanent
Time is pushing us back (following)
