

I Miss You Girl

Ace Troubleshooter

Where did you go, girl?
Where are you?
What happened to the sweet girl that I knew?
Can't believe the love that we once shared.
Was thrown back in my face,
And now you just don't care.

I miss you, girl.
I miss the look of love in your face.
I miss you, girl.
Holding hands and the warmth of your embrace.

Now you are there and I am here.
And every time I think of it it breaks my heart, dear.
But Jesus holds me to Him tenderly.
And I pray that He shows you the joy He's given me.

I love you, oh I miss you.
Wanna hold you close in my arms. Never let you go.
