

Jasmine

Ace Troubleshooter

It has been way too long since back when
Jasmine I've been wrong
I've been wrong about nothing

You're still the same, I wish you changed
It's still your game by your rules
And I will never learn nothing
And nothing ever changes

You're asking me to go to an ordinary, satisfactory
Almost paradise

Staying round you
Hanging round you Jasmine
With the sound of our straws
Sipping down Yoohoo

You tantalize, I fantasize
And in your eyes is the world
When all else fades into nothing
I'm the proof you're beautiful
When you're aloof I get dumb
And I can't think about nothing else
And nothing ever changes

You're asking me to go to an ordinary, satisfactory
Almost paradise

Staying round you
Hanging round you Jasmine
With the sound of our straws
Sipping down Yoohoo

Love's a beehive of honey and stings
And I don't care if I never learn nothing

Staying round you
Hanging round you Jasmine
With the sound of our straws
Sipping down Yoohoo

And I don't want anyone else
To mesmerize me, Jasmine
