

Jessicah Bean

Ace Troubleshooter

She asks me for a ride 'cause she lives kinda far away from me
So I take off in my car and roll up her steep driveway
She gets in the car and shuts the door
I step on the gas and let the engine roar
And as she calms down I tell her, "By the way,

Jessicah Bean, you're the prettiest girl I've ever seen
Jessicah Bean, you are the girl of my dreams
Jessicah Bean, you're the prettiest girl I've ever seen
Jessicah Bean, you are my queen"

I show her my muscles and she gets impressed
I tell her she's rad and she tells me I'm the best
As we're headed on our way down to the lake
We get out of the car and I hold her near
I lay the Johnny on thick and whisper in her ear
"What a great wife you would make,

Jessicah Bean, I really mean I want you for my queen
And I'll be your king
