

Today Is A New Day

Ace Troubleshooter

Today is a new day,
No time to live in the past.
I guess now I know,
No time to live with regrets.
Mistakes I have made,
Got to get on with my life.
My choice, no one else,
It's time to live in today.
Today I have made a beginning
And with God, I know, everything will be OK

Today is a new day, exciting or blase?
Is it routine and a chore?
Or a promise of something more?
Life gets upside-down and sometimes turned around.
But He's given us a change.
So put your trust in Him today.
