

Demise

Acid Drinkers

A chic I knew back in the day
Has fallen in a nasty way
Why get her up after the fall?
She's not my woman after all.

And in a way, I borrowed her
She ain't my bitch, why should i care?
'Your bitch - your business', they all say
But she'll be yours just the next day.

I knew the day would finally come when all breaks would fail the chum
The crash was loud, heard it from here
His cheeky grin just disappeared.

Ispent the last three drinking nights
With this one guy away from bright lights
Then he decides: 'Time to get off'
The night was dark but he looked tough.

Then he was found with lifeless eyes
Some shitty dump saw his demise they cut him off a linen rope
A night like this never brings hope.

I knew the day would finally come
when all breaks would fail the chum
The crash was loud, heard it from here
His cheeky grin just disappeared.
I knew the day would finally come
when all breaks would fail the chum
The crash was loud, heard it from here
His cheeky grin just disappeared.

A guy I knew half of my life
Adrenaline his only wife
He liked to live in the fast lane
Bald tires on to make each turn, yeah!!

I knew the day would finally come
when all breaks would fail the chum
The crash was loud, heard it from here
His cheeky grin just disappeared.
I knew the day would finally come
when all breaks would fail the chum
The crash was loud, heard it from here
His cheeky grin just disappeared.
