

Enjoy Your Death

Acid Drinkers

He turned on the carousel
Spinning fast! Slow down? No way!
'Rollercoaster' - he would say
'It is merely a child's play'

He was always driving fast
Quite often also wasted
He would pinch death in the ass
Kamikaze's life he tasted

Ride with Death in the fast lane
Walk upon the razor's edge, o yeah!
When the heart roars like a train
Then the mind is on the ledge
Enjoy your death!
Ride with Death in the fast lane
Walk upon the razor's edge, o yeah!
When the heart roars like a train
Then the mind is on the ledge
Enjoy your death!

He enjoyed his games with death
On her hand his fist would clench
He would face her, feel her breath
That medieval ghastly stench
Ride with Death in the fast lane
Walk upon the razor's edge, o yeah!
When the heart roars like a train
Then the mind is on the ledge
Enjoy your death!
Ride with Death in the fast lane
Walk upon the razor's edge, o yeah!
When the heart roars like a train
Then the mind is on the ledge
Enjoy your death!

In the crypt his head would dive
That just made his body shiver
But he wouldn't give his life
He was never, ever a big giver

Ride with Death in the fast lane
Then the mind is on the ledge
Enjoy your death!
Ride with Death in the fast lane
Then the mind is on the ledge
Enjoy your death!

There's a law that we have found
When the lungs are pumping fear
And blood's dripping on the ground
Vultures are bound to appear

Ride with Death in the fast lane
Then the mind is on the ledge
Enjoy your death!
Ride with Death in the fast lane

Then the mind is on the ledge
Enjoy your death!
Enjoy your death!
Enjoy your death!
Enjoy your death...
