

More Life

Acid Drinkers

Do you know what's ahead?
Do you have enough strength?
Will you wait in toilet?
Can you go through it all in one piece?
Will they be honest with you?
Will not they twist your words?
Do you want to stay in jail?
Or do you really want to come out?

More life?! come back from the other side!

Do you know what's ahead?
You know, I saw how some feel
And floated down the sewer
Where blood mixes with shit.
Will they be honest with you?
Will not they twist your words?
Do you want to stay in jail?
Or do you really want to come out?

More life?! come back from the other side!

Yeah, to fall doesn't mean to lose, to lose is to fall (2x)

And not stand up (2x)
