

I'll Still Be There

Acid House Kings

That it
That bitterest taste
A kiss from the girl
Who's looking forward to your friendship
She is in bloom
That's for sure
So friendship's not enough
Frankly, I must say she's a true star

I'll still be there
In love in dreams in wintertime
I'll still be there
When she says suns will never shine

Please look
There's so much in my thoughts
It's hidden by a haircut
She'll have to wait till I get older

And her silence is wise
And I know that nothing can ever be said

I'll still be there
In love in dreams in wintertime
I'll still be there
When she says suns will never shine
