

One Two Three Four

Acid House Kings

Just one more kiss boy, then I go
A morning romance and I know for sure
I wasn't sleepy and you couldn't tell

One two hours with you
Will give me even more
Three four seconds with you
Then you're such a bore

I head for your flat boy, I'll go home
You head for your office and you stay too long
If you're not present, then how will I know?

One two hours with you
Will give me even more
Three four seconds with you
Then you're such a bore

One two hours with you
Will give me even more
Three four seconds with you
Then you're such a bore

One two hours with you
Will give me even more
Three four seconds with you
Then you're such a bore
