

Distance

Acroma

And the distance in your eyes paralyzes me
And the words that stain your lips stain my soul
And now I can't deny that I must've missed the point
And I suffocate here in this cage
This alone
Save me now, don't let me drown and save me now
And I feel, I feel like I'm slipping away
Save me now, ooo the distance is less than what it seems
