

From The Depths

Acrophet

From the depths of insanity
I reach inside your soul
I'll lead you to anxiety
To torture is my goal
A servant for leviathan
To destroy the holy one
Prisoner for eternity
You have become my son.

Reality of internal darkness
In flames of angered prayers
Senseless thoughts of escaping
A world so cold that no one cares
Victims held by magic
Trapped in screaming night-mare
Teeth sinking in my skin
Caught in the dragon's lair

A shadow in the graveyard
Drives you to your fate
Stalks you in a frenzied fury
You find out it's too late
Rising from the ocean
Diving from the sky
Pulling from the innocent
A ticket to death you buy
