

I Am The Polar Bear

Across Five Aprils

I walk alone through the deep and the snow.

I walk alone.

I claim this land for my own.

Too many problems to see, then there was me.

All of the others agree that we just want to be free.

I walk alone through the deep and the snow.

Come in the water with me.

Come in the water with me.