

Chosen

Adagio

[Verse 1]

I'm lost in nowhere, I cannot see
What's inside of me
Some changes appear I can feel,
I'm coming alive

[Bridge]

My eyes are wide,
Opened to this brand new world,
I'm not supposed to bleed

[Refrain]

Only my eyes can see your world, like it is,
Blinded by innocence, see the moon fading out to black
Leave out your mind
And if I am the chosen one, I will try
To help you to understand, the silence can sometimes be your friend
Whisper your fears

[Verse 1]

Winter's breath leaves a cold wind on my face
My believing thoughts,
Decrease in shapes of ghostly sadness
I've failed out of weakness

[Bridge]

My eyes are wide,
Opened to this brand new world,
I'm not supposed to bleed

[Refrain]

Only my eyes can see your world, like it is,
Blinded by innocence, see the moon fading out to black
Leave out your mind
And if I am the chosen one, I will try
To help you to understand, the silence can sometimes be your friend
Whisper your fears
