

Navel to Neck

Adam and the Ants

Give me your hand here is mine
Better in the open
It's showtime let's call the tune

He's her baby boy
Navel to neck
Give me your mouth
I want to kiss you

Something deep inside me waits
You're giving up your daughters
But perfection is so dull

He's her baby boy
Navel to neck
Give me your mouth
I want to kiss you

That's the way the honey goes
Sweeter than a toy
From his tippy to his toes
He's he baby boy

Every inch of you I prize
Your body is a vision
And all the while look in your eyes
