

She saves me

Gontier, Adam

You know, you know what I've spoken.
All that matters is forgotten.
You know, you know what you cost me,
you turned your back and now you lost me.
You went to hide.

While she saves me,.
With the breath that she gave me.
She touches from above,
it comes from all the love.
And it saves me,
she saves me.

I know, I know you're so sorry.
Well it's too late and it's too haunting.
You know, you know, you know my story.
Can't take it back, it's too daunting.
I know you're running away.

While she saves me.
The breath that she gave me.
She touches from above,
it comes from all the love.
And she saves me,
she saves me.

While she saves me.
With the breath that she gave me.
She touches from above,
it comes from all the love.
And she saves me,
she saves me.

And she saves me.

You watched me fall.
Slowly fading, slowly sinking.
All the while I was thinking.
You help me.
Now I'm on my feet,
you're looking weak.
You're such a cheat, you're such a cheat.
It wasn't you,
it was her.

That saved me.
With the breath that she gave me.
She touches from above,
it comes from all the love.
While she saves me,
she saves me.

While she saves me.
With the breath that she gave me.
She touches from above,
it comes from all the love.

While she saves me,
she saves me.

And she saves me.
