

Apples, I'm Home

Adam Green

Apples, I'm home
Gonna grab a fuck (Maybe play some hockey)
My mouth is a liar (beware)
My feet are on fire (who cares)
I've never been shy-er (i'm not scared)
If everyone's bumping around
Because
Knowers know to know and
Goers go to go and
Show-ers show to show and
No one's gonna ask your name
When you fade into forever
(i can't figure out the lyrics to this line. can anyone help?)
How can anyone say right or wrong (i love you)
And then tell you you're ok

Oh I loved the ground once
And i kept my fingers warm
Everything was true
Everything was true

When your
Penis fell apart and
No one had a heart and
No one had a chart to
Show you the right way
You
Had to be a creature
Without specific features
There were no teachers
To tell you what to say (rip out your guts)
