Shady

Adam Lambert

Baby I'm on the hunt Baby I've got my target on you Trouble, that's what I want And I'm gonna do just what I have to Get your ass down to the front Go on and pull it out, I dare you Sorry I'm kinda drunk But did you just say your game was brand new?

No I ain't broken but I, I need a fix That satisfaction when I, I get my kicks I'm up all night I'm out of sight Don't turn on the light Cause I'm feeling so shady lately

Come on and take me underground Deep under the street Come on and take me, take me down The freaks like us can meet Turn it up, turn it up, turn it way up Don't stop the beat

Come on and turn me, turn me on Cause I'm feeling so shady lately

Ah! Ah! Gonna go and get me a shot Gonna knock it back forget all my blues Yeah that really hits the spot I'm feeling pretty fierce in my dancin' shoes (yeah)

No I ain't broken but I, I need a fix That satisfaction when I, I get my kicks I'm up all night I'm out of sight Don't turn on the light Cause I'm feeling so shady lately

Come on and take me underground Deep under the street Come on and take me, take me down The freaks like us can meet Turn it up, turn it up, turn it way up Don't stop the beat

Come on and turn me, turn me on Cause I'm feeling so shady lately

[Sam Sparro:]
I throw more shade than a cloudy day
The brakes don't work
I'm just a runaway train
Somebody come and help me out
All I wanna be is free
I'm just tryin' to get down
Now I can't get up

I'm shady lately

Come on and take me underground Deep under the street Come on and take me, take me down The freaks like us can meet Turn it up, turn it up, turn it way up Don't stop the beat

Come on and turn me, turn me on Cause I'm feeling so shady lately

(Shady lately, that's how I play, They say maybe it's just a phase Shady lately, runaway train Blame the game, quit blaming the gays)

'Cause I'm feelin' so shady lately
