

Beautiful Song

Adam Pascal

With every motion, there's an ocean of emotion
Understanding all you are, and all I am
I can be patient, there's a grace
In the courageous way that you
Take your every step, the best you can
In the silence I hear the sound of your heart
And in the pages that have been

Torn from every song
I can be wrong, you're safe in your space,
I can be wrong
But I think you can make, for a wonderful day,
Sing a beautiful song
So much to say yet and to do yet
Well it's all right there in your hands
