

Red Death

Adamantra

Blinded by the lust of diabolical force
So paralyzing love barks for revenge
And twisted thoughts flow deep in the catacombs of my black despair
Where the abhorrent mirages make them blind
On the brink of hatred I plunge you to the prison of my mind
As final threshold down into darkness wallowing in dismal curtain
The curse becoming a point of no return in the dead of the night

Soon you'll know all the secrets
Secrets beyond the Red Death
I know the one who rules the night
Of masquerade in the great hall of mirrors
Madness falling on evil days

Candlelight and last kiss of goodbye witnesses of miracle
Help to set us free
Wear the golden ring forever until death do us apart
The spirit lives on!
