

The Oracle

Adamantra

I summon the winds that bring destruction
My warriors are clutching their swords
Unleashing Hell
I've travelled so far from my land
I've conquered the World
Is there a wall that won't crumble and fall before me

Waging your war
Your fate's to fall
And after all
When racing your enemies
Into annihilation
Waging your war
Until the end
When evil shall reign no more
And peace will prevail

The Oracle saw that I'm The Chosen One
I will rule the world from my throne
I am divine
My journey would take me
Into ancient forbidden lands
The unholy union of Heaven and Earth will remain

Waging your war
Your fate's to fall
And after all
When racing your enemies
Into annihilation
Waging your war
Until the end
When evil shall reign no more
And peace will prevail
