

The Lost Boys

Adept

We are the misfits of the world,
we're underdogs and the ones who
sleep all day and party all night
We never grow old, we never die!

Only we can, only we can
I feel so sick and tired of watching this apathy.
They run around these empty streets believing they have a purpose.
I just cannot understand the meaning of their mission
We will sink our teeth and make them see what living is all about.

We'll suck on your poison
We'll feed on your passion

Let's go!
We are the shadows around each and every streetlight
The living dead. The forever young.
The soliders of the night

We are the misfits of the world,
we're underdogs and the ones who
sleep all day and party all night
We never grow old, yeeeaahh!

We are the misfits of the world,
we're underdogs and the ones who
sleep all day and party all night
We never grow old, we never die!

Every night is fucking feast.
We will live forever!
We live a life without an end.
We will live forever!

Only we can, only we can live forever
And we're coming for your throats tonight
Only we can, only we can live together
If our teeth keeps sinking in.

You were a waste of fucking life.
Until I showed you the glory of death.
You were a waste of fucking life.
Until these teeth opened up your eyes.

We are the end of the world!
We will never die!
We will never die!

We are the misfits of the world,
we're underdogs and the ones who
sleep all day and party all night
We never grow old, we never die!
