

All My Friends Are Wild

Adestria

Go, yahh, eeah.

They call me wild thing, wild thing...
Vines and trees, replace my walls,
And oceans fill my floors.
I sail through day, I sail through night,
I sail right through that open door
And in and out of weeks, almost over a year now
To where the wild things are...
Terrible roars, terrible eyes, terrible teeth, terrible claws,
oh!

And all my friends are wild.

They say "Oh please don't go, we'll eat you up. we love you so.
Oh please don't go, we'll eat you up, we love you so."
Be still,
They call me the king of all wild
Be still,
They call me the king of all wild
Be still,
They call me the king of all wild
Be still,
Be still oh!

We'll eat you up, we love you so.
Far across the sea, into the day and into the night,
Far across the sea, into the day and into the night.
Far across the sea, across the sea,
