

Dreamer

Adestria

Dreamer, dreamer, you've got your head in the clouds.
Dreamer, dreamer, you've got your head in the clouds.
Dreamer, dreamer, you've got your head in the clouds, lets go.

Dreamer!

These hands use to shake, under all the weight of past mistakes
I thought I made.
But see how calm (see how calm) no trembling palm, I steadied t he pen long ago,
But at what cost, what have I lost

These words lost their teeth (lost their teeth), they cut my mo uth and made my gums bleed.
But I kept them in, couldnt spit them out, no not again, no not
this time,
And I swallowed all their knives.

I hope you never forget me, I hope you never forget me.
I could have been the one,
I could have been the one, to knock you down where you belong.
I could have been the one to knock you down where you belong,
I could have been the one to knock you down where you belong.

These words lost their teeth (lost their teeth), they cut my mo uth and made my gums bleed.
But I kept them in, couldnt spit them out, no not again, no not
this time,
And I swallowed all their knives.
All their... knives!

Pick it up!
All their knives!
