

With The Wind At Your Back

Adestria

Look into my eyes

Wake up wake up, get out of your bed
Leave your town, see the world, love the life that you live, oh
Wake up! Wake up!

Live until you can't
Scale those mountains, sail the seas
All we have are the memories
Tomorrows not a guarantee
When you're on the ground, your goals can seem so far away

Step by step, one at a time, make me proud boys, it's time to shine
Don't let them take that from... you

Pay no attention to the jackals you'll find, they've given up they've all been left behind

Don't hope for karma or the stars to align,
Look into yourself find something inside
Stay young, grow old, don't be distracted
The fame, the gold, it's all worthless

Live until you can't
Scale those mountains, sail the seas
All we have are the memories
Tomorrows not a guarantee

You only get one chance to prove that you're worth something
And people will try to take that away, and we say, and we say;

Get out, while you can, take your scrapes and take your bruises
Get out, while you can, love your scars, you fucking earn them
Get out, while you can, take your scrapes and take your bruises
Get out, while you can, love your scars, you fucking earn them
Get out, while you still can, take your scrapes and take your bruises, oh
Get out, Get out

Look into my eyes.
