

Buttnaked

Adina Howard

I'm sitting here lookin at your body
Baby baby baby
I've never seen something so beautiful here
Lately lately lately
I love tha way tha candles are bringing out you're skin tone
Baby baby baby
Don't ever put you're clothes on again stay buttnaked
Baby baby baby

I love the way you sound
When I let you in
That sweet low moaning
(you look so good imma sing it again)

I'm sitting here lookin at your body
Baby baby baby
I've never seen something so beautiful here
Lately lately lately
I love tha way tha candles are bringing out you're skin tone
Baby baby baby
Don't ever put you're clothes on again stay buttnaked
Baby baby baby

The neighbors are gonna damn sure hear us tonight
I know your gonna do some eatin at my table tonight
Your bodys so banging you don't need no protection tonight
(Did I just say that? Yes I Did)

I'm sitting here lookin at your body
Baby baby baby
I've never seen something so beautiful here
Lately lately lately
I love tha way tha candles are bringing out you're skin tone
Baby baby baby
Don't ever put you're clothes on again stay buttnaked
Baby baby baby

I love the way you sound
When I let you in
That sweet low moaning
