

The Longing Never Stops

Admiral Freebee

Sometimes I feel like an unwelcome guest
Making his request
Sometimes I feel like an unwelcome guest
And I can't help but wonder for where I'm bound
With my lost account
I can't help but wonder for where I'm bound
Sometimes I feel like there's something over the hill
Something that can free me
Something I gotta see
It's a heed that never drops
The longing never stops
The longing never stops
Sometimes I feel like I'm almost gone

And I can't help but wonder for where I'm bound
With my lost account
I can't help but wonder for where I'm bound
Sometimes I feel like there's something over the hill
Something that can free me
Something I really gotta see
It's a heed that never drops
The longing never stops
The longing never stops
And the longing never stops
And the longing never stops
And the longing never stops
