

Welcome To Reality

Adolescents

Blood so deep the horse must hold his head up high
In the valley of decesion third of the world wiil die
Beat your hoes and plows into axes and spears
As the armys meet in a battle they predict for years

Let the weak say I'm a warrior bring down the warrior
Let the faithless regain faith
Your faith is hopeless

The prophets and the psychics and the military agree Continual world war crisis leads us straight to world war three Roll the red carpet let the angel of death ride in
To the valley of the valley of decesion let the mayhem begin

Apocalyptic madness two thirds of the world in sadness
The other third is gone but sadness lingers on Troubled citys and an aftermath of hate no way to stop them cau se now its too late
The antichrists mission done
The dead are the only lucky ones
Your decesion make a decesion the decesion in the valley its to o late
Welcome welcome to reality
Welcome welcome to reality
Make a decesion cause you've got no choice
