A War Poem

Adorned Brood

Beat me at night and kiss me at dawn kill my flame with your tears Light my hate with your fears Feel my heartbeat in your veins

I hold you tight - you hold my chains This is war I hold you tight - I hold your chains Be my war

Furious thunder of passion feeling storm arise This is our destiny Forward, push forward, just forward Until the break of dawn Know we will not give in

Goddess, my goddess, oh beautiful sin Gladly I would give my life Struggling over who's gonna win A battle we will survive

Follow me into battle Be my sword, my protective metal Take me hard, I'm yours You are the key to all my doors Be my inspiration, my spiritual source

I hold you tight - You hold my chains - This is war I hold you tight - I hold your chains - Be my war

Furious thunder of passion feeling storm arise This is our destiny Forward, push forward, just forward Until the break of dawn Know we will not give in

Goddess, my goddess, oh beautiful sin Gladly I would give my life Struggling over who's gonna win A battle we will survive

Be my love in the night Be my fright I hide Be the Enemy I fight Be the way I ride

Be my love in the night Be my fright I hide Be the enemy I fight Be my goddess, my pride

I hold you tight - you hold my chains This is war I hold you tight - I hold your chains

Furious thunder of passion feeling storm arise This is our destiny

Forward, push forward, just forward Until the break of dawn Know we will not give in

Goddess, my goddess, oh beautiful sin Gladly I would give my life Struggling over who's gonna win A battle we will survive
