

Call Of The Wild

Adorned Brood

I watch the sun
Rising from the ocean high
Beneath my skin the trembling
Of this sacred sight

Beyond my comprehension
More than the sum of its parts
This is a whole new dimension
The lost key to my locked up heart
To my Heart
To my Heart

I watch the sun
Rising from the ocean high
Beneath my skin the trembling
Of this sacred sight

Beyond my comprehension
More than the sum of its parts
This is a whole new dimension
The lost key to my locked up heart

Rise and fall
My new way
Trying to be free
Nature's call
And finally I found
My tranquility

I watch the sun
Rising from the ocean high
Beneath my skin the trembling
Of this sacred sight

Beyond my comprehension
More than the sum of its parts
This is a whole new dimension
The lost key to my locked up heart
To my Heart
To my Heart

Rise and fall
My new way
Trying to be free
Nature's call
And finally I found
My tranquility
