

Dearly Departed

Adrenaline Mob

I gave you everything
Took you under my wing
With open arms brought you in the family
You took the life from me
Now you're my enemy
Soon to be a member of the dearly departed

We were the best of friends
Thought it would never end
I curse the day they said you're selling me out
Now everybody's heard
You're singing like a bird
Spilling all your guts like a dirty rat

When it's time to die
You can cry your heart out when you're lying face down
The cards they never lie, don't tell me that you're sorry
Cause no one else is sorrier than me

Whatever happens to the person that I once knew
You always had my back when all the bullets were flying
You know we had it all but I won't take the fall
I'll never turn my back on the ones who love me

When it's time to die
You can cry your heart out when you're lying face down
The cards they never lie, don't tell me that you're sorry
Cause no one else is sorrier than me

When it's time to die
You can cry your heart out when you're lying face down
The cards they never lie, don't tell me that you're sorry
Cause no one else is sorrier than me
No one's sorrier than me
No one's sorrier than me
No one's sorrier than me
