

I laugh at you bible whores
Slave bastards you are Living a lie under god

I laugh at your Jesus Christ
Open your eyes
He looks so pathetic weak nailed to his cross

Like zombies you enter the church
One after one in a line
To recieve what the priest has in mind
Feeding a story of lies

I laugh at your holy priest
With your church you will die
Fire will devour your home

I will laugh when I see you dead
Flames melting your skin
Smell of victory

Like zombies you enter the church
One after one in a line
To recieve what the priest has in mind
Feeding a story of lies

Priest howling in church about something they think they know s o much about bible whores
Satisfied people they exit the church living a lie under god God and his bible will mess up your head like a priest you will suck Jesus cock
Live under Satan and live as you want or forever live as bible whores

I laugh as I see you pray
How silly you look
The candles you light I blow out

I laugh when I hear you sing
Those songs for your god
No one will ever save you

God's bible whores. I laugh at them all. five dollar whores Too blind to see. Reality.
