I laugh at you bible whores Slave bastards you are Living a lie under god

I laugh at your Jesus Christ Open your eyes He looks so pathetic weak nailed to his cross

Like zombies you enter the church One after one in a line To recieve what the priest has in mind Feeding a story of lies

I laugh at your holy priest With your church you will die Fire will devour your home

I will laugh when I see you dead Flames melting your skin Smell of victory

Like zombies you enter the church One after one in a line To recieve what the priest has in mind Feeding a story of lies

Priest howling in church about something they think they know s o much about bible whores
Satisfied people they exit the church living a lie under god
God and his bible will mess up your head like a priest you will Live under Satan and live as you want or forever live as bible whores

I laugh as I see you pray How silly you look The candles you light I blow out

I laugh when I hear you sing Those songs for your god No one will ever save you suck Jesus cock

God's bible whores. I laugh at them all. five dollar whores Too blind to see. Reality.
