

Ephemeral

Aeon

who's taking your life away? seems this is your final day have I strenght to go through this it's easier for you, you will find your peace in this world, that I detest so much there's always the need for a gentle touch one sign of it now it's gone with you I wonder now, can you see it too your life passing through
