

Lightning Strikes the Postman

Aereogramme

I got your letter
It turned to sand
Lightning strikes the postman
In his hand
I hope that you remember
The things you had to say
It's just a supernatural delay

I got your package
It's all a mess
Lightning strikes the postman
In his chest
I hope that your remember
The things you had to say
It's just a supernatural delay

Sent you a postcard
Hope to find
Lightning strikes the postman
All the time
I couldn't really think of Anything to say
It's just a supernatural delay

It's hard to read the writing through the flame
