

Luv Lies

Aerosmith

ahh when you cross that line that you know you cant erase to fall in lust not love aint no sin at all and tell me when your with your bestfriends friend do you still feel out of place no thanks I took that ride God only knows I tried believing I imagine everyone sometimes would cross their heart & hope to die to tell I love you lies I imagine everyone survives for giving up all that you got to t ell I love you lies the first time you look for love you find you dont know jack yeah so much for my ? you play to win cause first you lose your hearts desire then you get it back bu t in ??? place theres so much more behind the kiss I'm feeling

I imagine everyone sometimes will cross their heart & hope to d ie to tell I love you lies
I imagine everyone survives for giving up all that you got to t ell I love you lies

When loneliness & paranoia feeds me god help the person who needs me If ignorance is bliss than take me off the list I'm needing

I imagine everyone sometimes will cross their heart & hope to d ie to tell I love you lies
I imagine everyone survives for giving up all that you got to t ell I love you lies
