

Uncle Salty

Aerosmith

Uncle Salty told me stories of a lonely baby with a lonely kind of life to lead my mammy was lusted, Daddy he was busted they left her to be trusted till the orphan bleeds but when she cried at night, no one came and when she cried at night, went insane

Uncle Salty told me when she was just a baby that she'd get by and maybe someday she'd see but soon she found her mother's love for all the others the pushers and the shovers was the life to lead

ooh, it's a sunny day outside my window
ooh, it's a sunny day outside my window ooh, oh yeah
ooh, oh yeah, yeah yeah now she's doin any for money and a penny a sailor with a penny or two or three hers is the cunning for men who come a-runnin' they all come for fun and it seems to me that when she cried at night, no one came

and when she cried at night, went insane
