

Alchemy

Aesop Rock

I spit with an immense amount of power
Skull flame showers, cowards, cower, underneath our Storm clouds that indicate the acid rain hours
Now or, never, ever, ending on a bad note
Ripping a crab's throat for spitting a bad quote (Blueprint what's your approach?)
I smash black folk and white folk alike for jokes with mics
And make a Kodak moment out of the most boring open mic
I'll make a sad fan appreciate rap again
Fuck around and forget just how wack it's been I'm a bad man (Why's that?)
I catch bullets in my molars, body slam boas
And take flight with the weight of the world on my shoulders
And play David Blaine on any chains that hold us What started out as food for thought, turned into thoughts to turn they crews into food in hopes to satisfy my Insatiable appetite to dine on lifeforms
Small planets and satelllites
You solar system is my condiment
I'm bombin' comets, and don't sweat the small things and nonsense
Every dog has his day and even more so in rhyming
So I decided that I'd never play the fire hydren
Or grab the mic sounding lazy, worn down and tired
Cats don't really fall off they just get uninspired
But before you, get a reason to ever diss us
I'll drop a ill LP and disappear like Bobby Fischer
But this is, the building block of all that is
And what it is, is Alchemy
(Chorus)

Alchemy, basic with a touch of wild wonder

Alchemy, we made this to take your style under

Metal frame, walking through a, metal game with a limp, tight grip

Determined not to let time slip

This is Alchemy, iron b-boy and all his glory

Alchemy, hold it from the colder sob story

Metal frame, walking through a, metal game with a limp, tight grip

Determined not to let time slip

Ah, dirty, dirty destiny

Birded murders with a burn gurshin a peasantry

Nervous flux flirtin' with hurley burly chemistry

Graffiti burner urchin merchant with a certain urge jerkin' served and cente rpiece

My zig-zag bully balance gallops with a fiery outline

Ban and bomb y'all pastel poets belly up (I'll tell you what)

Born stylin' 4 dimensions count em'

3 to take to ya muck one to build a world you'll never touch

And I'm a pilot, delerium, serum, poison arrangement

?Aroused? when I feel like storming suck the raw enslavement

With a grin-style stinger creeping out the basement

Impatient wild ritualistic visions of sacrificial bitch cadence

For all my iron giant soldiers with a metal fist upshielding mother nature from her fatal wrist cuts story I'll respect you

(So why they blaming you for the cats that sleep while the earth turns?)

Yeah I had em' up all night praying I'd re-release Music For Earthworms

Greed even are lease screaming with milestone like ring ring ring I just caught the scream phoenix click dial tone

Welcome to a clouds swell blew to hallucination war pillar

Carnivore, carnival, karma slasher

I dash like a jack rabbit that orbits revelation with a single pounce

To Edward Scissorhands your string of doubts (Yo turn it out)

This is that mighty case of home field advantage to bend your blizzard With a crocodile smile and five robot knuckles to your kisser

(Chorus)

This is Alchemy, basic with a touch of wild wonder

Alchemy, we made this to take your style under

Metal frame, walking through a, metal game with a limp, tight grip

Determined not to let time slip

This is Alchemy, iron b-boy and all his glory
