

A Nice Place To Visit

Aesthetic Perfection

I welcome you to your hell,
Look around,
I hope you like what you see,
Have a drink,
Have a smoke,
It's your home now so feel free,
Swallow your panic,
What's so tragic,
About giving up your soul?
No way out,
No way out,
There's no way out of this hole.

I know,
That you want me,
And I know,
That you love me,
And I hope,
When you touch me,
That you know you've touched damnation.

To hell with damnation.

No pity for people pretending,
This place will not be a gift,
Narcissist,
Pessimist,
Deluded piece of shit,
No gnashing of teeth,
Just the baggage you bring,
It just lays at your feet,
You'll never find your release,
Silently,
Beckoning,
Into eternity.

There's no place like home,
There's no place like home,
There's no place like home,
There's no other place I'd rather go.
