

Heroes We Are

Aethra

We arrived and fell from heaven, we rised and ride together, we shall rule the world tonight. Inside a thunder rumble, collide creation rubble, we take all that we can get,

We will prevail...so when you find us nothing will harm you, wont feel the pain...cause we`re gonna fight for you, reaching the stars to you, heroes we are and we never go down, forever holding on...we had a walk into hell, we shake devils weak hand, theres is no place we cannot reign. Inside a thunder rumble, collide creation rubble

We take all that we can get...we will prevail...so when you find us nothing will harm you, wont feel the pain... cause we`re gonna fight for you, reaching the stars to you, heroes we are and we never go down, forever holding on...
