

Make Me Believe

Aethra

The feeling is getting so strong,
I know cause I've seen it before,
The line between pleasure and pain,
It's dancing in circles again.

Now the air is drying mi heart,
Making me rub my eyes,
Waiting for someone to lay,
Waiting for you to arrive.

Give me one time, and give me one chance,
I'm gonna make you reach the sky,
And touch the sun,
In this cold lonely night.

Give me one dream, and make me believe,
That there is so much more to give,
For you and me,
Make me believe, make me believe.

Now ready to fight my fears,
Changing those things I believe,
Lifting and open door to ask for more.

The wind of change is blowing,
While my head is tired of live behind,
Walls and sand and heart to fight,
Rings that bell into the fire.

Staring at wild steamy sky,
I know that I will be all right,
Cause I been bless with to much life,
For I just wanna have you here tonight.

Give me one time, and give me one chance,
I'm gonna make you reach the sky,
And touch the sun,
In this cold lonely night.

Give me one dream, and make me believe,
That there is so much more to give,
For you and me,
Make me believe, make me believe.
