

Clove Smoke Catharsis

AFI

lean against the night and laugh as I try to scale the wall ignored futility fills the air you're only there to watch me fall watch me fall
watch me

if only pure sweetness was offered why's this bitter taste left in my mouth if I could catch my breath
just to exhale
I'd know that I held it in too long from above comes a faint smile a new vantage, such a view familiarity, now disowned just sit and stare, as I walk away walk away

watch me

why's this bitter taste left in my mouth
just to exhale

why's this bitter taste left in my mouth
just to exhale
I'd know that I held it in too long

if only pure sweetness was offered (pure bitterness) why's this bitter taste left in my mouth (pure sweetness) if I could catch my breath (my breath)
just to exhale
I'd know that I held it in too long
