

So Beneath You

AFI

I don't believe that I can stay here
And watch them vilify my blood.
I don't believe that you are with me.
It's so beneath you, gazing up.

I won't kneel.
I won't bow.
If you're there now
Strike me down, strike me down, strike me down
Oh, you've got nothing.

There is none higher than this blood
And I won't serve anyone.
No there is nothing above
And I don't serve anyone, anyone.

There's nothing above

Deep in my heart, a disbeliever
Only inviting in the truth.
You're in my heart, my disbeliever,
As holy horror crushes you.

I won't kneel.
I won't bow.
No one is there to
Strike me down, strike me down, strike me down
Except the faithful.

There is none higher than this blood
And I won't serve anyone.
No there is nothing above
And I don't serve anyone, anyone.

I don't believe that I can stay here
And watch them vilify my blood.
I don't believe that I can stay here
And watch them vilify your love, my love.

I won't kneel.
I won't bow.
If you're there god
Strike me down, strike me down
You won't

There is none higher than this blood
And I won't serve anyone.
No there is nothing above
And I don't serve anyone, anyone.
